This letter is my formal written request for you to investigate the following unverified accounts listed below: According to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681 your company is required by law to verify - through the physical verification of the signed consumer contract - any and all accounts you post on a credit report to assure maximum accuracy. Without proper verification by your company, anyone paying for reporting services could fax, mail, or e-mail in a fraudulent account.

I demand to see a copy of the Verifiable Proof, an original consumer contract with my signature on it, that you used to verify that the account belonged to the credit report named: LUBA GONZALEZ. Your failure to properly verify these accounts has hurt my ability to obtain credit for my business. Under the FCRA 15 U.S.C. 1681, unverified accounts must be promptly deleted. If you are unable to provide me with a copy of the verifiable proof that you have on file within 30(thirty) days for each account listed below then you must remove these accounts from the credit report. Please provide me with a copy of an updated and corrected credit report showing these items removed.

Please be advised that this is my second written request for you to remove the unverified accounts listed below that remain on my credit report in violation of 15 USC statute 1681. You are required under the FCRA to have properly verified that an account listed on my credit report is mine by having a copy of the original credit application on file. In the results of your first re-investigation, you stated in writing that you verified that these items are being reported correctly. Who in your company verified these accounts? How did they verify them? Please provide me with the name of the individual, business address, and telephone number of the person or business contacted during your re-investigation. Also, tell me why you didn't send me copies of the verification like I asked you to?

As I am sure that you are well aware, current case law states that, Consumer Reporting Agencies bear grave responsibilities to ensure the accuracy of the accounts they report on and their responsibility must consist of something more than merely parroting information received from other sources. The courts have ordered that a re-investigation that merely shifts the burden back to the consumer and the credit grantor cannot fulfill the obligations imposed by statute 1681 a 4.

You have not provided me a copy of any original documentation that you have on file that is required under section 609 and 611 a 1 A, a consumer contract with my name on it, and under section 611 5 a of the FCRA - you are required to promptly delete all information which cannot be verified.

The law is very clear as to the civil liability and the remedy available to me negligent non-compliance, section 617, if you fail to comply with this federal law. I am a litigious consumer and fully intend on pursuing litigation in the matter to enforce my rights under the FCRA. I demand the following accounts be verified or deleted immediately.
